A little water and a drizzle of oil is all that's required to create a tasty dip, sauce or spread. As a cooking ingredient they can be used just about everywhere. Added to any dish, they can create something special, the only limit is your imagination.

Classic Bruschetta Mix

Spread onto slices of crusty bread. Sprinkle over Mediterranean vegetables, drizzle with olive oil and roast in the oven. Use some of the mix to make a really rich pasta sauce with a difference.

Garlic & Herb Bruschetta Mix

Spread on a warm baguette, bake in the oven, and finish with some cheese grilled on top. Add a spoonful of the dry mix to your favourite salad dressing for extra flavour. Stir into sour cream or mayonnaise for a delicious dip.

Spicy Arrabiata Bruschetta Mix

Use as a sauce for the classic Penne All'Arrabiata. Mix with butter and use to stuff button mushrooms then bake in the oven. Use as a dip with grissini breadsticks.

Wild Mushroom Bruschetta Mix

Stir a few spoonfuls into beaten eggs for wonderfully rich scrambled eggs. Mix the Bruschetta with butter for tasty herb butter and melt over baked potatoes. Add to mushroom soup for a flavour boost and finish with a swirl of cream.

Tropical Bruschetta Mix

Add the mix to equal parts of Deli-cious Chilli and Lemon infused Olive Oil, marinate chicken pieces for a few hours and grill over hot coals or bake in the oven. Use to baste lamb kebabs or baked fish.

Hot Chilli Bruschetta Mix

Use the mix with Nachos, Enchiladas or Fajitas. Make a dip with a side serving of guacamole and sour cream. Add the soaked mix to strips of chicken and then fry for a spicy Mexican dish.

Barbecue Grill Bruschetta Mix

Mix two parts mayonnaise with one part yoghurt, then add a spoonful of dried Bruschetta Mix for a tasty mayonnaise dip. Baste kebabs or make a summer dip for grilled prawns, sausages or chicken wings. Add to beef mince for some authentic Aussie outback burgers.
